Oil Painting: Practicing Sitting Meditation at Material Site

This painting shows a Falun Dafa practitioner who is forced to stay away from home to avoid persecution. She had begun practicing as a child before the persecution and later becomes mature and sets up a material site. In her simple shelter, after preparing and organizing Falun Dafa informational materials, she sits in meditation. Her face is peaceful and a slight illumination is emitted from her body. This image shows that Falun Dafa practitioners do not fear hardship or evils but move forward in a dignified way.
